INNER ADJUSTMENTS

DECEMBER 2026

Ruti de Vries

Ruti de Vries's work is held in the collections of the Israel Museum, Jerusalem, and the Tel Aviv Museum of Art, as well as the Haaretz art collection, Atlas Hotels and many private collections. She has presented solo exhibitions at Künstlerhaus Bethanien, Berlin; the Nahum Gutman Museum of Art, Tel Aviv; Schimmel Projects, Art Centre Dresden; the Artists' Residence, Herzliya; and Ha'Kibbutz Gallery, Tel Aviv.

Her work has been shown in group exhibitions at the Tel Aviv Museum of Art; Herzliya Museum of Contemporary Art; Petach Tikva Museum of Art; MoBY: Museums of Bat Yam; and the 6th and 8th National Drawing Biennale, Jerusalem, among others.

De Vries is the recipient of the Navon Prize (2024), the Asylum Arts Grant (2023), the Israeli Ministry of Culture Young Artist Prize (2016) and the Yehoshua Rabinovitz Foundation Grant (2015). Her work was acquired for the Tel Aviv Museum of Art collection through the Rappaport Foundation's acquisition fund. Her residencies include the Cité internationale des arts, Paris, and Artport, Tel Aviv (2024).

A multidisciplinary artist, De Vries works mainly with installation, sculpture, drawing and animation, creating makeshift constructions from quotidian, everyday materials. These provisional environments often draw inspiration from ritual sites and summon ceremonial situations or moments of commemoration. The concept and process of craft, with its elements of decoration, ornamentation and symmetry, are essential to her practice. Her work is a hybrid of the autonomous object and the integrated environment, moving between the high aesthetics of late Modernism and amateur craft practices.

Born in Tel Aviv in 1989, De Vries lives and works there. She holds an MFA from the Bezalel Academy of Art and Design, Tel Aviv (2015), took part in the exchange program at the Beaux-Arts de Paris (2014), and holds a B.Ed. in Education and Fine Arts from Hamidrasha, Beit Berl College (2012).
